Emmanuel Emmaus

From the Community Lay Director

Dear Community,

“You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden”. Matthew 5:14

My walks around Camp Loy White (now Camp Tekoa Foothills) have become a time of seeing meaning in my spiritual journey all around me. The Holy Spirit breathes new life into ordinary things. I have walked around camp many times and seen things differently as I experienced God speaking in a new way.

Sometimes the path before us is well marked and smooth. The way seems easy and clear.

Sometimes the path before us is uneven, narrow and not clearly marked.

Sometimes the path before us may be well marked and smooth, but, there may be obstacles along the way that are messy, unexpected and unpleasant.

Sometimes the path before us is unknown. It may seem steep and take extra energy to climb.

We may not know what path lies before us, when we set out to follow God’s path, but, we can walk confidently. It will not matter whether the path before us is smooth or bumpy, well marked, or unclear. When we take up our cross and follow Christ, we can walk into the unknown (no matter how steep, messy, unexpected, or unpleasant) because we know that Christ goes before us. It is my prayer that the one who has called us “by name”, will guide us all faithfully on the path that is before us. At times our paths have led us to work for the Kingdom of God side by side, hand to hand, and heart to heart. At other times we have been further apart, yet still connected by the bonds of God’s amazing love.

So as we journey together toward Easter and the Spring Walks #163 & #164, I ask you to look for ways that God is speaking. What signs and wonders will awaken you to the message of God’s love? What in your world will speak loudly and clearly? What signs are there to let you know how far you are on your journey?

I look forward to hearing of how God is at work as we all watch for the signs!

Continue praying for abundance, Mark 11:24 says, “Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it and it will be yours.”

DeColores,

Angela Sowell
