

Emmanuel Emmaus Community Minor's Policy

The Emmanuel Emmaus Community is blessed to have a wonderful group of young people (Chrysalis Butterflies) who have servant's hearts and desire to serve God and the community.

For the safety of these young people, and the protection of the Emmanuel Emmaus Community and Camp Loy White, this policy will be put in place:

Any person aged eighteen (18) years or younger should have an adult mentor in attendance with them whenever serving on walk weekends. If the responsible adult is not the parent, there must be a note of permission from the parent or legal guardian, allowing the minor to be in attendance at Camp Loy White, and releasing the Emmanuel Emmaus Community and Camp Loy White from responsibility. Emergency contact information should be included in the note.

Permission form may be found below:

Minor's Name _____

Responsible Adult Present At Camp _____

Emergency Contact Phone: _____

Name: _____ Relationship _____

The above named minor has my permission to attend the Emmanuel Emmaus Walk at Camp Loy White on (dates) _____. With the knowledge that that my child will be in a safe and loving environment within the community, I understand and agree that the Emmanuel Emmaus Community nor Camp Loy White can be held responsible for him/her.

Parent or Guardian

Date